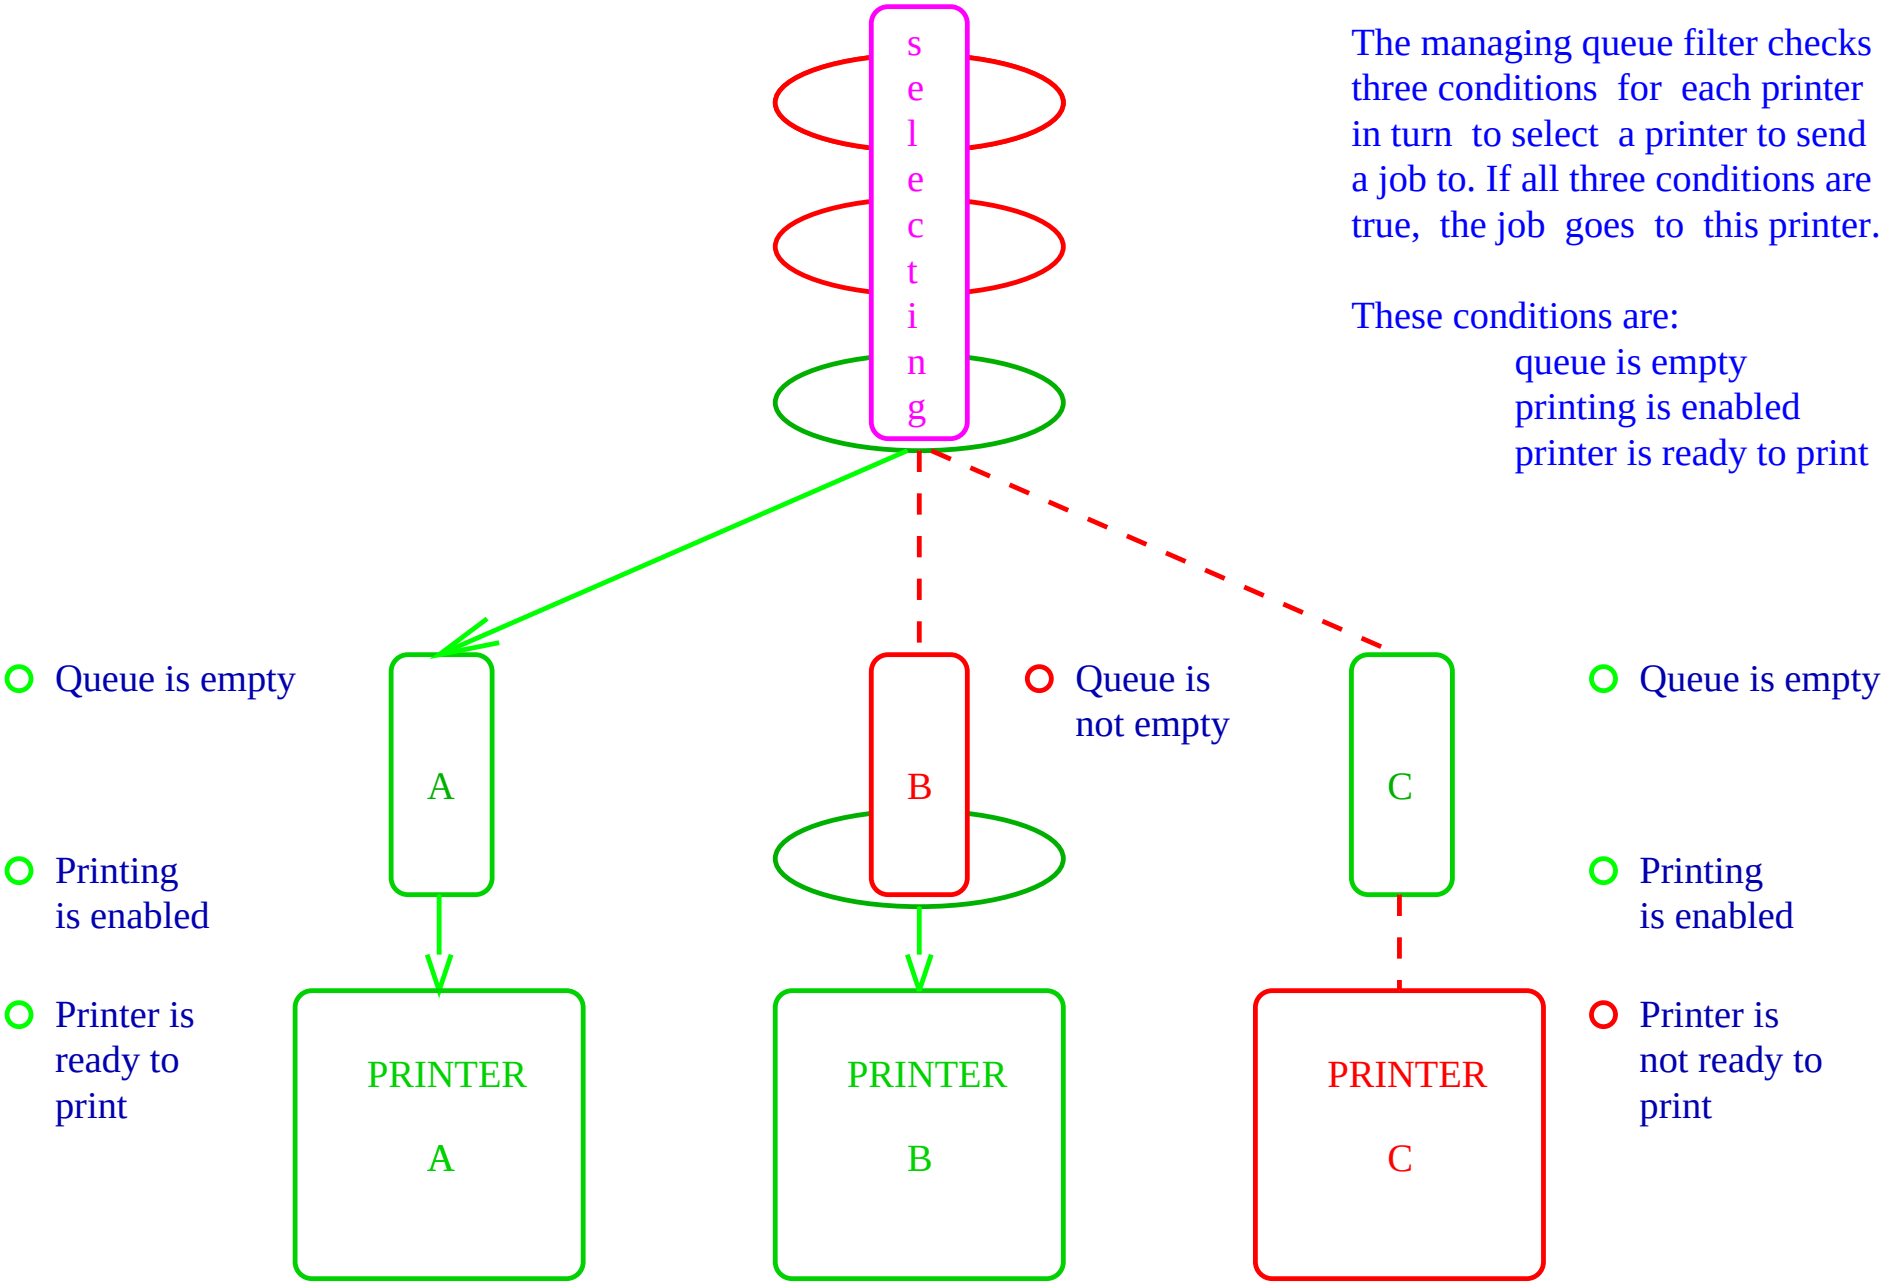
Managing queue



The managing queue filter checks three conditions for each printer in turn to select a printer to send a job to. If all three conditions are true, the job goes to this printer.

These conditions are:

queue is empty
printing is enabled
printer is ready to print